

The Chess Chronicles

Local Boy Loses Three Games in a Row

AJ Nimmer went 1-3 at Westfield, only winning against one person who barely knew how to play the game. He committed 182 blunders and two brilliant moves throughout the four game series.

AJ commented after the second game, " I think my luck finally ran out. "

Overall, just a bad day for chess lovers everywhere, especially AJ.